PLEASE READ THE TERMS OF THIS POLICY CAREFULLY BEFORE USING THE SITE

COOKIES POLICY

1. By using our site you accept these terms

Your access to and use of this website is subject to the terms of this cookies policy, our Terms of Business and any other legal notices and statements contained on this website. By using this website, you agree to be subject to the following terms. If you do not agree to these terms, you must not use our site or open an account with us. We recommend that you print a copy of these terms for future reference.

2. Where to find terms that may apply to you

This Privacy Policy should be read with the following documents that will all apply to you. Click on the links below to go straight to more information on each area:

3. What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small file stored on your computer that helps us anonymously to identify your browser from page to page and from visit to visit to improve your experience on a particular website. It assists and can speed up your use and navigation through our site. It stores your preferences and allows the site to remember you. If you do not know what cookies are, or how to control or delete them, then we recommend you visit http://www.aboutcookies.org for detailed guidance. Alternatively, you can search the internet for other independent information on cookies.

4. How do they work?

The first time you visit a site which uses cookies, a cookie is downloaded to your device. This can contain a variety of information to improve your visit on the site, such as language preferences, etc. The next time you go back to that website, your browser checks for a stored cookie and sends information back to the website if there is one stored. The website then tailors content appropriately (for example, to display the UK version of the site).

5. How we use Cookies

5.1. We use a number of different cookies on our website to help us improve performance.

5.2. The following information describes the cookies we use on this site and what they are used for. By signing the Data Protection Notice and Consent https://download.content-uk.com/Valutrades_Data_Protection_Notice_Consent.pdf, you have provided consent for us to put a cookie on your computer.

5.3. If you change your mind, then you should either not use this site, or you should delete our cookies having visited the site, or you should browse the site using your browser's anonymous usage setting (such as "Incognito" in Chrome, "InPrivate" in Internet Explorer, "Private Browsing" in Firefox and Safari). You can also change your browser settings to disable cookies or to be advised when cookies are sent to your computer. However, this will inevitably impact the services we are able to provide for you, so if you hope to be able to operate an account with us we advise that you leave cookies enabled.

6. Persistent Cookies for Site Analytics and Performance

Google AdSense

This cookie is used by Google to report to us how Valutrades advertising is performing if you click on a Google ad. User data is all anonymous.

You can find out more generally about Google and its policies and principles as regards advertising at http://www.google.com/policies/privacy/ads/

Google Analytics

We use this to understand how the site is being used in order to improve the user experience. User data is all anonymous.

You can find out more about Google's position on privacy as regards its analytics service at http://www.google.co.uk/intl/en/analytics/privacyoverview.html

Adform

An Adform cookie is used to collect and store non-identifying data about our users and use them for analysis and online behavioural advertisements. As a result, such advertisements offer an enriched online experience and deliver advertisement content that is likely to be more interesting and relevant to you. You can find out more about Adform by clicking on this link http://www.adform.com/site/privacy-policy

7. Third Party Content

We occasionally provide content through third parties who may implement cookies of their own. This includes trusted third party content providers, who provide data for the ticker.

We recommend you set your browser to not accept third party cookies if you do not wish to have these services place cookies on your machine. We have little control over what they do with the data they collect.
